SWIMMING CLUB'S FIRST APPEARANCE

THE HOTEL BATHS WERE OPEN-ED ON LAST SATURDAY EVEN-ING A LARGE CROWD PRESENT.

The opening of the Hotel Baths on last Saturday evening under the auspices of the Hawaiian Swimming Club proved to be a great success. The bath house was filled with people until there was absolutely no more room for spectators. Hundreds were turned away.

The large swimming pool excited the admiration of the crowd, and many of them expressed the wish that they might pile into it and have a half hour of sport. The trapeze, the rings and chutes all came in for their share of admiration.

Promptly at 8:30 o'clock the Hawaiian Swimming Club made its appearance and an interesting program was run off without a hitch.

All of the performances were cleverly executed and drew forth the plaudits of the crowd, especially the high work of Freeth, Chandler, Kopke and Osa.
Chandler made good with his feats from rafters doing many difficult drops and hitting accurately each and every time. Kopke was good. Many who have had the privilege of seeing Freeth in other exhibitions were a bit disappointed on Saturday night. It should be explained out of justice to Freeth that both of his hands were badly swollen from football one hand having a broken bone. On account of this after the first dive his hands pained him so much that he did not dare to strike first with them.

Ernest Kopke gave a very creditable exhibition of the crawl stroke. He drew again and again the plaudits of the crowd.

The others were good and the crowd left in a happy mood. No doubt the baths will prove exceedingly popular with the Honolulu public.

Course, from Moana pier to stake and return. Prize, cup.

Course, from flags opposite A. M.
Brown's residence to Moana pier.

residence to Moana pier. Prize, $10.

Brown's residence, and return.

Absolute Confidence

Is the expression used by persons in speaking of the ability of our Safe Deposit Vault to resist the attack of burglars.
The construction of this vault was on plans adopted after a careful study of all that was good in every other make of safe.

Demand for Space

The demand for space in the vault was not confined alone to individuals, there was a call on the part of joint trustees and executors for a box large enough to hold large books as well as valuable papers. This demand is now satisfied, for we have boxes of all sizes from that for the wants of the individual whose papers are not too bulky to the corporation, or estate that need roomy compartments.

Insurance is Low

The fee for the boxes is low considering the security and insurance they afford. One large enough to hold the papers of an individual rents for four dollars a year, the rate for the larger size is in proportion to the space. They are rented for periods according to the wants of the renter.

The conveniences offered by us are not surpassed by any company in the city. The elegantly appointed private rooms for the accommodation of renters who wish to examine their papers in private are appreciated. Access to the boxes may be had at any time during business hours, but no box can be opened without the attendant first using the master key in the lock. The large boxes, those suitable for estates, where there is more than one trustee, are arranged so that both persons must be present when access is had.

Inspection is invited and the officials of the company are always ready to answer questions of a nature familiar to them.
